FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

California Capital Airshow will take to the skies this September

Exclusive discounts are available for this patriotic event

Sacramento, Calif. – The California Capital Airshow (CCA), presented by Sacramento County in partnership with the City of Rancho Cordova, will take to the skies on September 9 and 10 with gates open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day at Mather Airport.

“The California Capital Airshow is a full-sensory experience,” said Darcy Brewer, executive director of the California Capital Airshow. “We’re excited to bring the Sacramento region two full days of non-stop entertainment and unparalleled access to the world of aeronautics and aviation.”

The California Capital Airshow illuminates a century of American aviation and ingenuity with miles of aircraft, from the spine-tingling civilian and military jet performances including the Patriots Jet team, U.S. Navy F-18 tactical demonstration, U.S. Air Force Heritage Flight starring the A-10 Thunderbolt II, world-class aerobatics, barnstorming, warbirds, and so much more!

In preparation for this massive family-friendly festival, the Airshow has launched a new website – CaliforniaCapitalAirshow.com – to provide attendees a preview of what to expect both in the air and on the ground at this year's Airshow. New for 2017 is the National Aviation Heritage Invitational (NAHI) competition, updated premium venue chalets, a Kid's Stage – so much more than just what's soaring overhead or roaring across the skies.

Airshow Insiders will have first dibs on deeply discounted tickets, up to 50 percent off, on July 27 at noon. Anyone can sign up to become an Airshow Insider enter your name and email address on the homepage of CaliforniaCapitalAirshow.com and receive a link to purchase tickets before the public!

Tickets will be available for all fans on August 1 at noon at CaliforniaCapitalAirshow.com or Rancho Cordova Chamber of Commerce. Prices will increase incrementally until the event on September 9 and 10 at Mather Airport. Military discounts are also available at the ITT offices at Travis and Beale Air Force Bases.

“Exploring exciting displays and interactive exhibits as well as pilot meet-and-greets are a great way to start the day,” Brewer explained. “Attendees will want to be on site and ready for the action before noon, when in-air demonstrations and fly-bys begin or all things shiny, fast and loud take to the skies.”

About California Capital Airshow

Established in 2004, the annual California Capital Airshow uses the power and magic of flight to entertain and amaze tens of thousands of attendees every September at historic Mather Airport for one of the largest and most prestigious demonstrations of a century of military and civilian aircraft on display and in the sky. Year round, the California Capital Airshow 501c3 is dedicated to inspiring a life-long passion for STEM learning and innovation, with a variety of youth events, presentations and scholarships that help drive the future of aeronautics and encourage young people to reach for the stars.
