California Capital Airshow to Celebrate the Navy's 250th Anniversary at March Airshow

Airshow will serve as keystone event of Navy Week in Sacramento

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – January 2, 2024 – California Capital Airshow (CCA), presented by Sacramento County in partnership with the City of Rancho Cordova, will celebrate the U.S. Navy's 250th anniversary at its March airshow, scheduled for March 22-23, 2025, at Mather Airport. The Airshow will serve as the keystone event of the Navy Office of Community Outreach's "Navy Week," which runs March 17-23, 2025 in Sacramento. Sacramento is one of only 15 host cities selected for "Navy Week" events in 2025.

"It is a tremendous honor to partner with the Department of the Navy to bring the Blue Angels to Sacramento and celebrate the military branch's 250th birthday," said Darcy Brewer, Executive Director of California Capital Airshow. "Throughout Navy Week and at the Airshow, attendees can look forward to fascinating educational exhibits that showcase the Navy's history, mission and career opportunities. We'll have a specially-curated selection of aircraft and other naval assets on display at the Airshow, as well."

Gates to the Airshow will be open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, March 22 and Sunday, March 23. Each day will feature four hours of non-stop flying performances from 12-4 p.m. Performers include the U.S. Navy Blue Angels flight demonstration squadron, U.S. Air Force F-16 Demonstration Team, Tucker's Air Patrol, vintage warbirds and more.

Discount Airshow ticket sales will begin January 22, 2025 for "Airshow Insiders" only. Sign-up to become an Insider for free at CaliforniaCapitalAirshow.com. Public ticket sales will begin on February 1, 2025. Ticket availability for the 2025 Airshow is limited, and tickets will not be available for purchase onsite at the event.
